A – History of McFarlane Bowling Association

The year 1979 marks the Diamond Jubilee, the 60th anniversary, of the McFarlane Bowling Trophy. The trophy was donated by Lewis Browne McFarlane, a beloved telephone pioneer and the President of Bell Canada from 1915 to 1925, on January 6, 1919.

Mr. McFarlane's deed of gift read:

"In accordance with the promise which I made to the bowling league, I now have pleasure in offering to the Montréal Bell Telephone Bowling League a trophy for competition which I trust the league will be pleased to accept.

"It is my idea that this cup be a perpetual trophy and open to challenge... between recognized champion teams of any Bell Telephone bowling league.

"The Secretary of the Company, Mr. W.H. Black, has kindly consented to act as Trustee."

Originally a challenge trophy for the 10-pin championship, the McFarlane was first captured by Montréal in competition with Ottawa. In 1919, the Montréal "Contract" team defeated Ottawa in three strings, 2,353 to 2,284, at Montréal. A. White of Montréal rolled the high triple of 535 and the high single of 199. The "Contract" players were G. Anderson, T. LaRose, R.C. Allen, J. Seebold, and A. White. C.S. Walker was the non-playing captain. Ottawa was represented by H.J. Bowen, A. Sévigny, J.P. Dennison, F.H. Rowe, and W. Blair.
